

Sprint 1 Goals:

- Not Applicable

Progress:

- Joined group project repository.
- Collaborated on group document.
- Worked with team to select additional features and wrote user stories for base features and additional features.
- Updated product backlog on Trello.
- Completed Flask 1 individually and learned how to use basic features and implement simple code that can be executed in a web browser.
- Communicated with team to plan for sprint 2.
- Completed team status report.

Sprint 2 Goals:

- Consider and document ethical implications of software design in our project.
- Consider and document possible avenues of misuse for our program and how to prevent the program from being misused.
- Submit team report for sprint 2.
- Submit individual report for sprint 2.
- Update product backlog.
- Work with group to formulate a plan for meeting with the group throughout the remainder of the semester and when project work will be completed.
- Work with group to assign specific roles to each team member for the remainder of the project.
- Meet with instructional team to ask questions regarding product backlog and user stories.
- Collaborate with team members on UI design and storyboard.
- Complete Flask 2 to learn more about the platform and its features.